IT IS MY TURN...

Soon after meeting Kharge, Siddaramaiah drove down to the residence of KC Venugopal, the AICC general secretary in charge of Karnataka.

In all this drama, the Gandhi family took a back seat and left the entire matter to Kharge for two reasons: He hails from Karnataka and knows all the players like the back of his hand and, secondly, they did not want to give the impression that there is a high command over and above the AICC chief. Privately, DKS has said he will do whatever Sonia Gandhi says. "She wanted me to deliver Karnataka and that is what I did. I am a loyalist and willing to go with the party," Kharge earlier in the day also held discussion with former party chief Rahul Gandhi, who drove down to his residence. AICC general secretary K C Venugopal also held a separate meeting with Gandhi to discuss the issue of government formation in Karnataka. FRESH CLAIMANTS: Meanwhile, former deputy CM and senior party leader G Parmeshwara Tuesday sprang a surprise stating that he was ready to take up the responsibility if the party high command asked him to do so. "If the high command wants, I am ready to take up the responsibility," the former Deputy Chief Minister told reporters, adding that a Dalit leader should become the chief minister.

He further said that the high command was aware of his service to the party, and he doesn't feel the need to lobby for the post. "I trusted the party leaders. I can form a group of 50 MLAs. But I don't do that. I have some principles. Discipline is important to me. If the high command gives me the responsibility of CM, I will definitely do it. Also, I have served as the Deputy Chief Minister. The High Command knows everything about me and my work, so I don't want to lobby. That doesn't mean I'm incapable; I'm capable and if given an opportunity will do the job," Parmeshwara said.

Another fresh claim has cropped up from Bengaluru. The All India Veerashaiva Mahasabha, which represents the influential Lingayat community, has bid for the top post, citing that 34 of the newly elected Congress MLAs are Lingayats. The swing of the Lingayat vote, once a key support base of the BJP, has been identified as a key factor in the Congress win this time. In a letter addressed to Kharge, the All India Veerashaiva Mahasabha has said that the Congress had fielded 46 candidates from the community and 34 of them won. "Furthermore, we wish to bring to your kind notice that our community has played a major role in electing other smaller communities in other 50 constituencies. This shows that the traditional voter of the BJP has shifted its loyalty to the Congress party, thereby supporting the Congress party to win 134 constituencies in the state," the letter adds. "Considering the above facts, we now urge the Congress party to give a chance/consider a Veerashaiva Lingayat community leader for the post of Chief Minister of Karnataka state," the letter stated. According to AICC spokesperson Pawan Khara, a decision on the appointment of the Chief Minister of Karnataka will be taken by tomorrow.

Monsoon to hit...

Rainfed agriculture is a critical component of India's agricultural landscape, with 52 per cent of the net cultivated area relying on this method. It accounts for about 40 per cent of the country's total food production, making it a crucial contributor to India's food security and economic stability.

The IMD has not announced the onset of monsoon in other parts of the country. This year, Punjab, Haryana, Delhi, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh, Jammu and Kashmir, Ladakh and Uttarakhand have received 18 per cent excess rainfall in the pre-monsoon season so far, according to IMD data.

"There is no one-to-one relationship between the onset date and the total rainfall over the country during the season. Also, the monsoon arriving early or late in Kerala doesn't mean it will cover other parts of the country accordingly. The monsoon is characterised by large-scale variables and global, regional and local features," IMD chief M Mohapatra told PTI.

Amnesty: No Army...

The chaos unleashed by Imran's supporters against State institutions and military installations has been linked to the former premier's anti-military stance, open accusation and naming and shaming of senior serving military officials for being behind attempts on his life. Now, with the Army resolved to respond to this narrative with legal cases, Imran Khan's coming days may just be numbered and he may be booked and put on trial under the same references. If a case is lodged against Imran Khan and he is put to trial under any of the Army Acts, he may face life imprisonment or capital punishment. Meanwhile, the Lahore High Court on Tuesday reserved the verdict on Khan's petition seeking bail in all cases registered against him in Punjab province following his arrest in a corruption case last week that sparked violent protests by his supporters.

Cong reality check...

The Gruha Jyothi scheme has come under the scanner for financial implications. The Congress claimed the scheme will cost Rs7,000 crore a year, but experts say that there are 1.9 crore households in the state and if 200 units are given free per month, the consumption will be 3,845 million units a month. This translates to Rs44,404 crore. Even if half the households were to get free power, the amount required would be around Rs20,000 crore a year. The scheme is now likely to be extended only to those who use 200 or less units of power in a month. "The offer will not be extended to those who use one unit more (201 units)," said a senior Congress leader, echoing the Delhi model of the Aam Aadmi Party government there. Another poll promise being tweaked is about women being able to travel free of charge in government buses anywhere in Karnataka.

The free ride will be restricted to the daily commuter's route in an ordinary bus and will not apply to rides on semi-deluxe or deluxe buses. For instance, it will be provided between home and office and not across the city or the state. "If we allow free travel for all women, the already-bleeding transport corporations may face more losses," a senior transport officer was quoted in the media as saying. The 10kg free rice for BPL families (Anna Bhagya), Rs3,000 every month for graduate youth and Rs1,500 for diploma-holders (both in the age group of 18-25) for two years (YuvaNidhi) will also come with several riders. The freebies will entail a cost of about Rs40,000 crore annually, which is 15% of the state budget, a senior Congress leader was quoted in the media as saying. Hence, the new government cannot afford to grant freebies in the first year of office.

Ex-SIMI man's Khandwa...

On Tuesday, two NIA officials with a team of Kotwali and Moghat police reached Raqib Qureshi's house in Khanshawli Colony at around 10 am. They searched Raqib's room and gathered information from the family members. Family members informed them that Raqib's room was on the first floor. After this, the officers reached his room. They continued their search operation for about two hours. During this, the local police team surrounded Raqib's house and also kept an eye on the surroundings. Around 12 noon, NIA officials moved out of Raqib's house. The officers kept avoiding saying anything regarding the action.

I-T RAIDS IN BENGAL, ASSAM

Rs 100 cr unaccounted cash receipts unearthed

NEW DELHI: The Income Tax Department said on Monday that it recently conducted search and seizure operations on a business group operating largely out of North Bengal, which led to the unearthing of unaccounted cash receipts of about Rs 100 crore.

The operation also led in the seizure of Rs 1.73 crore unaccounted cash and jewellery valued at Rs 1 crore.

According to sources, the business group is controlled by a person with an active political background.

"Searches were also conducted at the premises of his close business associate. The group is engaged in a variety of businesses, ranging from production and sale of edible rice bran oil, mustard oil, de-oiled rice bran (DORB), different types of chemicals as well as real-estate business," said an I-T official. The I-T Department said that a total of 23 premises spread across Uttar Dinajpur, Dakshin Dinajpur, Malda, Kolkata and Siliguri in West Bengal, and Guwahati in Assam and its surrounding areas were covered. The search action revealed that the group was suppressing its yield and making unaccounted cash sales of edible oil and DORB.

Man drags dog for over 1 km behind bike

AGENCIES Malappuram(Kerala),

In an incident of animal cruelty, a man dragged a dog for over a kilometer, tying it behind his motor-bike near Edakkara in the district.

Visuals of the incident have gone viral and were also aired on TV channels where the man's brutal behaviour is being questioned by a bystander even as the canine lies, apparently lifeless, on the road a couple of feet behind the two-wheeler.

As the bystander berates the man, he is heard trying to justify his conduct by saying that he found the dog dead on the road and as he did not want to touch it he had tied it behind his two-wheeler. The bystander, who shot the video of the incident, refuses to accept his claim and is heard saying that what he was doing was not right and if it was dead, the dog should have been buried somewhere instead of being dragged on the road.

CONG'S COLD SHOULDER TO DIDI'S 'TRUCE' OFFER

NEW DELHI

Congress MP Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury on Monday said that Congress will definitely fight the election in West Bengal.

Chowdhury's reaction came as a cold shoulder response to West Bengal CM Mamata Banerjee's statement that her party will support Congress where it is strong but "it should not fight against her in Bengal".

Responding to her statement Chowdhury said, "We will definitely fight elections; we will fight wherever it is needed." Chowdhury further accused Mamata Banerjee of making such statements as with Congress victory in Karnataka she feels that without aligning with Congress, she will not be able to survive. "With Congress victory, Mamata Banerjee now feels that she will not be able to work at any cost without doing compromise with Congress, ahead of Karnataka elections have you ever heard Mamata Banerjee saying, vote for Congress to defeat BJP. She is the same Mamata Banerjee who visited Bihar and Uttar Pradesh to support those who are fighting against BJP, but why did not she visit Karnataka to support Congress?" questioned Chowdhury.

Methanol, not hooch behind TN tragedy

CHENNAI: The tragedy that struck Ekkiyarkuppam and Perunkaranai villages of Tamil Nadu was due to the consumption of methanol, a deadly concoction made by illicit brewers, and not due to spurious liquor, the police claimed on Tuesday. The organic chemical was procured from a man from Pudukchery by various persons and it was used to brew the spurious liquor, a release from the DGP C Sylendra Babu said. This light, volatile, colourless and flammable liquid is used for industrial purposes. Methanol has the odour of alcohol. "Due to the effective measures taken to prevent the brewing of illicit liquor in Tamil Nadu, and also the enhanced vigil to curtail the movement of the illicit liquor, resulted in its non-availability in the state.

Varanasi court agrees to hear plea seeking Gyanvapi ASI survey

VARANASI: A court here on Tuesday agreed to hear a plea for a survey by the Archeological Survey of India (ASI) of the entire Gyanvapi mosque premises located next to the Kashi Vishwanath temple. Accepting the petition filed by lawyer Vishnu Shankar Jain, who represents the Hindu side, District Court Judge A K Vishvesh asked the Gyanvapi mosque committee to file its reply to the plea by May 19. District Government Counsel Mahendra Nath Pandey said.

Raj CM Gehlot increases honorarium of priests

MANISH GODHA / JAIPUR

Countering the allegations of appeasement politics, Rajasthan CM Ashok Gehlot increased the honorarium of part-time priests serving in state temples. This decision, coupled with a substantial financial provision of Rs 5.93 crore, aims to facilitate temple repairs, decoration, painting, and overall upgradation in a total of 593 temples that comes under the State Devasthan Department.

As per the proposal, the honorarium for these priests will rise from Rs 3,000 to Rs 5,000 per month, ensuring their financial wellbeing.

Furthermore, the proposal includes a budget allocation of Rs 5.93 crore, equating to a maximum of Rs. 1 lakh per temple, to undertake repair and upgradation works in 390 state direct charge temples and 203 state self-sufficient temples. This fund will facilitate necessary improvements, including dressing, painting, and repair works.

The increase in honorarium for priests and the provision for temple repairs and upgradation was made in this year's budget.

Pilot's aide booked in land grabbing case: Rajasthan Congress MLA Ved Prakash Solanki, considered a loyalist of former deputy chief minister Sachin Pilot, has been booked for cheating after a woman alleged that she was duped of her land, police said on Monday.

कोर्ट में फिर पकड़ाया नकली जमानतदार

इंदौर। जिला न्यायालय में कल फिर एक नकली जमानतदार पकड़ाया है। फर्जी दस्तावेजों पर वह जमानत देने के लिए पहुंचा था। न्यायाधीश महोदय को शंका हुई तो दस्तावेज की जांच करवाई जिसमें फर्जीबाई पकड़ में आयी। आरोपी के खिलाफ धोखाधड़ी का केस दर्ज किया गया है। एमजी रोड थाना प्रमारी संतोष यादव के अनुसार कोर्ट नंबर 91/1 के बाबू नगेज कलशिया की शिकायत पर आरोपी हिमांशु चौहान निवासी आइडिंग मल्टी गैरी टेकरी कनाडिया के खिलाफ प्रकरण दर्ज किया गया है। श्रीमान फंजन कुमार श्रीवास्तव साहब की कोर्ट में आरोपी हिमांशु एक जमानत देने पहुंचा था। उसने जो दस्तावेज पेश किए थे वह दस्तावेज सही नहीं थे न्यायाधीश महोदय को शंका हुई तो जांच करवाई इसके बाद आरोपी को एमजी रोड पुलिस के हवाले किया गया। गौरतलब है कि पूर्व में फ्रांज़ ब्रां ने जिला कोर्ट से दर्जनाम से जमानत नहीं जमानत हजारों को पकड़ा था। आरोपी कुछ समय बाद फूट गए थे अब दोबारा कोर्ट में नकली जमानत दाओं की गैर सफ़र्य हो रही है।

होटल में घुसकर कर्मचारियों पर हमला
