Is govt committed to continue Ladli Behna: Oppn

OUR STAFF REPORTER city.bhopal@fpj.co.in Opposition tried to put the government in dock over the Ladli Behna scheme, rising debt, education and health in the Assembly while speaking during discussion on motion of thanks on the Governor's address to the House on Thursday.

The Congress legislators wanted to know from the government if the government was committed to continue the Ladli Behna Scheme as the Governor's speech on Wednesday had no mention of it. The opposition also cornered the government over the state's rising debt which has skyrocketed to around Rs 4 lakh crores and per capita debt has touched Rs 50,000 during the BJP rule. Stating that the gap between rich and poor has widened, MLA Ramnivas Rawat said that the BJP government has failed to eradicate poverty from the state as out of 8.5 crore population, 5.37 crores are still taking the free ration. He also questioned the save girl child campaign claiming 8 point decline in girl birth rate in the state. Citing NITI Ayog survey, the Congress MLA said the state stands 17th in health sector. Pointing to the repeated mention of PM Narendra Modi in the Governor's address, the Congress MLA Bala Bachchan wanted to know if MP has become a Central-ruled state. He also wanted to know from the treasury bench why the state has failed to take the GST compensation sum of Rs 5000 crores from Centre pending for the last three years. The Opposition also reminded the government of its promise to buy paddy at Rs 3100 per quintal.

Officials harassing people over loudspeaker norm

Attacking the government over the decision on loudspeakers at religious places, Arif Masood alleged that in the name of rule, the officials were unnecessarily harassing the concerned people. He sought clarification over the implementation of the loudspeaker norm in the light of the Supreme Court ruling.

During the discussion on the Governor's Address, as many as 31 Congress MLAs moved amendments on it.

State-level soft tennis championship begins

Mayor listens to public grievances

FP NEWS SERVICE Dewas

In a continued effort to address the concerns of residents, Mayor Geeta Durgesh Aggarwal chaired a public hearing at the Municipal Corporation on Wednesday, drawing numerous applicants seeking solutions to various civic issues.

During the session, residents approached Mayor Aggarwal with a range of grievances, spanning concerns about cleanliness, street lights, old age pensions, encroachments, and among others.

Additionally, citizens brought forward issues about other government departments as well. The mayor listened attentively to each concern raised by the applicants.

Assuring swift action, she pledged that all issues under the jurisdiction of the civic body would be promptly addressed within the stipulated time frame.

The mayor took proactive steps by instructing the relevant departments to address complaints not falling under the purview of the municipal corporation.

The mayor, along with MLA and Mayor representative Durgesh Aggarwal, councillor representative Raj Verma, and corporation deputy finance commissioner Puneet Shukla distributed licenses to 10 food and non-food business vendors. Executive engineer Nagesh Verma, office superintendent Ashok

Upadhyay, revenue officer Pradeep Shastri, assistant engineer Induprabha Bharti, Jagdish Verma, deputy engineer Dilip Malviya, health inspector Harendra Singh Thakur, BJP leader Vipul Aggarwal also attended the meeting.

The consistent and effective handling of citizen complaints in these public hearings has notably bolstered resident confidence in Mayor Geeta Durgesh Aggarwal's governance.

Municipal president's father accused of molestation

FP NEWS SERVICE Pipalrawan

Pipalrawan Municipal Council president Kavita Sharma's father Devnarayan Sharma is embroiled in a controversy as a woman councillor filed a complaint accusing him of molestation and assault. The 31-year-old councillor, along with fellow women councillors, lodged a report at the local police station.

According to the victim's account, the councillors visited city council president Kavita's office to submit an application. Shockingly, they found Devnarayan Sharma occupying the president's chair. When they requested a receipt for their application, Sharma allegedly refused.

The victim confronted Sharma about his refusal, questioning his presence in the president's room. This led to a heated exchange, with Sharma reportedly misbehaving and assaulting the councillors, especially the complainant.

"I bravely resisted his advances, but Sharma allegedly kissed my hand with ill intentions, attempting to forcefully remove me and other women from the room," said the complainant. The situation was defused by other councillors present, including Mamta Bilwani, Jhanubai, Radhe Baretha, and Anil Thakur. According to them, as they exited, Sharma issued a chilling threat, warning them against seeking a receipt in the future, underlining the gravity of the incident.

In response to the councillor's complaint, the police registered a case against Devnarayan Sharma under Sections 354, 323, 294, and 506 of the IPC.

Meanwhile, Sharma, accompanied by his daughter, retaliated by filing a counter-complaint. He claimed that the councillor and fellow women assaulted him, demanding commission money and making caste-based remarks.

"When I was heading towards the police station to file the report, Deepak Bilwan and Radhe Baretha stopped me in front of Rahul Rathore's shop and beat me up," said Devnarayan Sharma while reporting the incident. The police, in turn, registered a case against councillors Radhe Baretha, Bablu Hada, Anil Adivasi, Rahul Rathore, Monu Bhavsar, Pankaj Bilwan, Deepak Bilwan, Raju Bilwan, and Babu Shinde under various Sections of the IPC and Section 3 of the SC/ST Act.
