Himachal rains kill...

The dead have been identified as Harnam (38), Kamal Kishore (35), Hemlata (34), Rahul (14), Neha (12), Golu (8) and Raksha (12), Superintendent of Police, Solan, Gaurav Singh said. In Balera panchayat of the district, two children died as their makeshift house collapsed in a landslide and the body of one of them has been recovered. Another woman died in a landslide in Banal village of Ramsheher tehsil, said Deputy Commissioner of Solan Manmohan Sharma.

In Mandi district, seven members of a family, including a two-year-old, were killed in a landslide late on Sunday night in the Seghli panchayat. Three persons were rescued, Deputy Commissioner Chaudhary said.

Six bodies have been recovered at Sambhal near Pandoh. The bodies are yet to be identified, the deputy commissioner said, adding two deaths have been reported from Dharampur area.

Thar desert may...

The current study shows that the monsoon's rainfall has already shifted west with precipitation increasing by up to 50% in some regions of the dry northwest, while decreasing over parts of the humid east. Over the next century, the team's models predict that the Thar could see almost double the amount of the rainfall it does now as the monsoon moves more than 500 kilometers farther west. The team's models reveal that the Indian Ocean has and will continue to warm unevenly, heating up faster in the west than the east. This imbalance, they predict, will move a critical low-pressure area called the inter-tropical convergence zone west with it, and affect where the monsoon rains concentrate as a result. Goswami says because of this unusual way the inter-tropical convergence zone directly affects where the South Asian monsoon hits land, the Thar "will probably become green by the end of the century."

Most of the rainfall that's going to bombard the Thar in the coming decades will "come in bursts," Goswami says — not in a consistent drizzle over several months. This increase in heavy rain events, dumping more than 10 centimeters of water in a day, will mean the region must adapt to avoid annual floods that destroy agriculture and level towns.

PM pays tribute to lives lost in partition

Modi had announced in 2021 that August 14 will be observed as the Partition Horrors Remembrance Day

People take part in a demonstration on the Partition Horrors Remembrance Day in New Delhi

AGENCIES / New Delhi

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Monday paid tributes to those who lost their lives during India's partition and recalled the sufferings of people in that period on the occasion of the Partition Horrors Remembrance Day.

He said it is an occasion to remember the Indians who lost their lives during the partition, a reference to the large-scale communal violence at that time.

This day is also a reminder of the tribulation and struggle of those who were forced to migrate, he said, paying tributes to them.

Modi had announced in 2021 that August 14 will be observed as the Partition Horrors Remembrance Day. Meanwhile, Gujarat Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel and senior leaders of the ruling Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) on Monday observed the 'Partition Horrors Remembrance Day' by paying tributes to people who lost their lives in the violent event. Taking to Twitter, the chief minister said India's partition was an extremely painful event that claimed the lives of many people.

"Our country's partition in 1947 was an extremely painful event. While numerous people lost their lives, many of them were rendered homeless due to partition. On the occasion of Partition Horrors Remembrance Day, I pay my humble tributes to all those who lost their lives during the partition," Patel tweeted.

The partition of the country on the basis of religion in 1947 is a dark chapter in history. The hatred it generated has killed lakhs and displaced crores of people. The country had to pay a heavy price for this and many people are still facing the brunt of this horror. Today, on 'Partition Horrors Remembrance Day', I pay tributes to all those people who lost their lives and their family members due to the partition

STRESSES ON maintaining spirit of harmony, giving priority to deprived

'World looks up to India for global economic growth'

NEW DELHI: President Droupadi Murmu on Monday said that despite having diverse identities all Indians are equal citizens with equal opportunities, rights and duties and urged the people to move forward with the spirit of harmony and brotherhood.

In her address to the nation on the eve of 77th Independence Day, the President said each Indian has many identities but apart from caste, creed, language, region, family and profession, "there is one identity" that is above all as the "citizen of India".

"Each one of us is an equal citizen; each one of us has an equal opportunity, equal rights and equal duties in this land," she said.

"But it was not always so. India is the mother of democracy and since ancient times we had democratic institutions functioning at the grassroots. But long years of colonial rule wiped them out. On 15th August 1947, the nation woke up to a new dawn.

Those who vote for BJP are 'rakshas': Surjewala

KAITHAL

Congress General Secretary Randeep Singh Surjewala stirred a huge controversy after he said that those who vote for the BJP and those who support the saffron party are like 'rakshas (demons)'.

Khattar, others slam Cong leader's remarks

Hitting out at the BJP-JJP government in Haryana over the alleged paper leaks in recent days, Surjewala while addressing a public meeting in Kaithal on Sunday, said, "The papers and future of the youths are being sold by Manohar Lal Khattar and Dushyant Chautala. They are selling the papers openly in the market by bidding them. That is the reason why people are urging them not to give us jobs but at least give us an opportunity to sit in exams. But they are also snatching the opportunity," he said.

I.N.D.I.A hurt by Pawar tantrums

OUR BUREAU NEW DELHI

At a time when Opposition bloc INDIA is putting up a united front and planning their next big meeting in Mumbai, a meeting in Pune last week between National Congress Party supremo Sharad Pawar and his nephew Ajit Pawar who holds the post of Deputy Chief Minister in Maharashtra government has created consternation in the opposition camp.

Notwithstanding Pawar's clarification that he has no plans to join hands with the BJP though some "well wishers" are trying to persuade him to do so, rumours mills are grinding fast creating an impression that there is definitely something more than what meets an ordinary eye.

given a brief by a top leader of the BJP who is also a Union Minister that he should persuade his uncle to desert INDIA so that challenge from the opposition to the Modi led BJP could be nipped in the bud itself.

Even if senior Pawar is not willing to cross over, meetings between the uncle and nephew would result in confusion which would weaken INDIA in the eyes of people and allies in the MVA would be at logger heads, sources said adding that in any case project Pawar of the BJP is creating the intended impression. While the Shiv Sena (UBT), a key member of the Opposition alliance in Maharashtra, is not amused by Sharad Pawar's meetings with nephew and Deputy CM Ajit Pawar, weeks after his rebellion split the veteran's party.

SC defers caste survey hearing to Friday

OUR BUREAU/ NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court, on Monday, deferred for August 18 hearing various pleas filed before it challenging the Patna High Court order refusing to stay the caste-based survey in Bihar, after the state government affirmed that it is not a census but a voluntary survey.

A bench comprising Justice Sanjiv Khanna and Justice SVN Bhatti listed the plea filed by Non-Government Organisation (NGO) 'Ek Soch Ek Paryas' challenging the High Court order on August 18 along with other pleas filed on the same subject matter.

NO STAY: Senior advocate Mukul Rohatgi, who appeared for one of the petitioners, submitted before the SC that the direction may be issued to the Bihar government to not publish the details of the survey till the pendency of pleas before the court, however, the bench said that it will amount to an indirect stay on the survey without even hearing the state government.

ADANI CASE: SEBI wants 15 more days from SC

NEW DELHI

Markets regulator Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) on Monday filed an application with the Supreme Court seeking 15 more days to submit the report on the allegations made by the US-based short-seller Hindenburg Research against the Adani Group, seeking time to probe some brokers in the case. Deadline set by the court for SEBI report is expiring on August 14.

In its filing, the regulator said the investigation had progressed substantially. "Sebi had sought information from entities/agencies/regulators in foreign jurisdictions, etc and upon receipt of the information, will evaluate the same vis-a-vis the interim report to determine further course of action, if any, in the said matter," the capital markets regulator said.

Out of the 24 issues in the Adani case, Sebi has completed investigation in 17 issues. Out of the remaining seven issues, Sebi said probe had been crystallised in four cases, and reports prepared are in process of approval by competent authority. Sebi investigation is at an advanced stage in two other matters, while interim report is under preparation in the other matter. SEBI had sought six months' extension, but the court allowed 3 months ending on August 14.
